

Fulbright Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program

The Fulbright Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program will bring international secondary-level teachers to the United States for a six-week program to take academic seminars for professional development at a host university and to observe and share their expertise with teachers and students at the host university and at local secondary schools.

Program Activities and Timeline

General academic seminars focusing on new teaching methodologies, student-centered learning, lesson planning, and instructional technology training for teachers.

A practicum of at least 40 hours with a U.S. partner teacher in local secondary schools.

A variety of relevant professional development and cultural activities.

Accepting Applicationsapproximately January - March 2022
(timeline varies by country)

Applicants Notified August 2022

Spring 2023 Cohort Program January - March 2023

Fall 2023 Cohort Program September - October 2023

ELIGIBLE COUNTRIES

Algeria • Argentina • Armenia • Azerbaijan • Bangladesh • Barbados • Belarus • Bolivia • Burkina Faso • Cambodia • Cameroon
Chile • Colombia • Costa Rica • Cote d'Ivoire • Dominican Republic • Ecuador • Egypt • El Salvador • Ethiopia • Georgia
Ghana • Guatemala • Haiti • Honduras • India • Iraq • Jordan • Kazakhstan • Kyrgyzstan • Laos • Latvia • Malawi • Malaysia
Mali • Moldova • Mongolia • Mozambique • Nepal • Nicaragua • Niger • Nigeria • Panama • Peru • Russia • Rwanda
South Africa • Sri Lanka • Sudan • Tajikistan • Tanzania • Thailand • Tunisia • Turkey • Turkmenistan
Ukraine • Uruguay • Uzbekistan • Venezuela • Vietnam • West Bank/Gaza • Zambia

Eligibility and Selection Criteria

- Current secondary-level full-time teachers of English, English as a Foreign Language (EFL), math, science, or social studies including special education teachers in those subjects at institutions serving primarily a local population
- Bachelor's degree or equivalent
- Minimum of three years of experience of full-time teaching by the start of program, with a preference for those who have completed at least five years of full-time experience
- Demonstrated oral and written English language proficiency
- Citizen and resident of a participating country
- Other requirements as indicated in the application

An independent review committee will be convened to select participants for the program through a merit-based competition.

The Fulbright Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program provides:

J-1 visa support

Roundtrip airfare

Accommodations, meals, and incidentals for the duration of the program

Accident and sickness medical coverage
(supplementary to participant's existing insurance)

A workshop in Washington, D.C.

Professional development and cultural activities

@FulbrightTeach @ECAatState

www.facebook.com/FulbrightTeach

To learn more about the Fulbright Teacher Exchanges, please visit www.fulbrightteacherexchange.org or email FulbrightTEA@irex.org.

About the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs, U.S. Department of State

The Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) of the U.S. Department of State fosters mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries around the world. ECA strives to achieve this goal through a wide range of international exchanges as authorized by the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961, as amended. ECA works in close cooperation with U.S. Embassies and bilateral Fulbright Commissions overseas to promote personal, professional, and institutional ties between private citizens and organizations in the United States and abroad.

About IREX

IREX is a global development and education nonprofit organization whose mission is to build a more just, prosperous, and inclusive world by empowering youth, cultivating leaders, strengthening institutions, and extending access to quality education and opportunity. The U.S. Department of State awarded IREX a grant to implement this program on its behalf.